APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN FOR THE RAYTHEON LEADERS IN EDUCATION AWARD

TUCSON, Ariz. – Applications for the annual Raytheon Leaders in Education Award are now open. The program recognizes and rewards Pima County teachers in grades PreK-12 who are achieving outstanding classroom performance, demonstrating leadership in their schools and communities, and supporting their peers in a committed teacher workforce. Application materials can be found at TucsonValuesTeachers.org and are due by midnight via email on Monday, September 11, 2023.

Through a rigorous evaluation process, judges will narrow down applicants to twelve finalists and ultimately choose four awardees—one representing PreK, one for K-5, one for 6-8, and one for 9-12. Raytheon will award the four winners with $2,500 cash each; an additional $2,500 in matching gifts will be presented to each teacher's respective school. In addition, each finalist will receive $500.

To be eligible for the Raytheon Leaders in Education Award, teachers must:

- Spend the majority of a school day in direct instruction to students.
- Be currently certified to teach in Arizona or have PreK equivalent credentials.
- Have completed at least four full years as a classroom teacher.
- Teach grades PreK-12 in a Pima County school.
- Be a full-time teacher and plan to continue in active teaching status through 2024.
- Be the subject of a completed application with a submission deadline of September 11, 2023.

Tucson Values Teachers' Chief Executive Officer, Andy Heinemann, said, "It is important that as a community we come together and recognize the professionalism and passion of our educators. We're grateful to partner with Raytheon Missiles and Defense to honor local teachers with the Raytheon Leaders in Education Award. This year is especially important because winners will be recognized at Stand Up 4 Teachers on Nov. 16 as part of our 15th anniversary celebration."

Finalists and winners of the Raytheon Leaders in Education Award, along with the winner of the Spirit of Education Award, will be honored at Tucson Values Teachers' Stand Up 4 Teachers event on Nov. 16 at the Westin La Paloma.
